

Hope & Divine Purpose Transitional Living Home, Inc.

Period Partner's April 2025 donation recipient is Hope and Divine Purpose Transitional Home Inc.

Hope and Divine Purpose Transitional Home; Inc. is a charitable organization that advocates for young women ages 16-22 who were victims or survivors of Human Trafficking/Exploitation and Homelessness.

Greetings,

Our organization is a female minority-operated ministry located in Joliet, Illinois a small urban/rural area with 90% of our population we serve is below the poverty threshold. Hope and Divine Purpose Transitional Living Home; Inc is a 501(c)(3) charitable organization that advocates for exploitation and homelessness. Our mission is to optimize the potential of our individuals by providing quality basic necessities.

We provide low-income families with tangible resources. We operate a basic needs pantry and seek support for our Mommy & Me Diaper program. We serve about 150+ single mothers & children, unhoused women and youth a month. Our distribution events receive huge responses from families experiencing financial hardships. Your contribution will assist us in furthering our efforts to alleviate poverty.

"This donation provided our outreach program with the in-kind resources to partner with other like-minded organizations to further our giving impact. The Period Partner donation program has been a tremendous blessing to our mission and I look forward to future opportunities to collaborate." – Israeio Holloway
