

Dignity Matters

Period Partner May/June 2025 donation recipient is Dignity Matters.

Dignity Matters is a nonprofit organization based in Massachusetts that works to combat period poverty by providing free menstrual products, bras, and underwear to people experiencing homelessness or financial hardship. Their mission is to support the health, self-confidence, and dignity of those who menstruate, ensuring access to essential hygiene items that are often overlooked but deeply impactful in daily life.

Period Partner is proud to support Dignity Matters through a donation that helps provide menstrual care products to those in need. Dignity Matters supports over 170 nonprofits across Massachusetts—including food pantries, public schools, homeless shelters, domestic violence centers, community colleges, and LGBTQ+ youth organizations—ensuring that individuals experiencing poverty or homelessness have access to essential hygiene products. Their extensive network of community partners spans from nationally recognized organizations like the Salvation Army to smaller, local agencies deeply rooted in the communities they serve. Period Partner's contribution is a step toward promoting dignity, health, and equity for all.

Period Partner supports their mission of helping all girls and women have the right to live with basic dignity by donating over 50,000 menstrual products.
